Re: United States v. Ernest Murphy, S3 18 Cr. 373 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan:

The Government respectfully submits this letter to seek the Court's authorization with respect to the filing of Government's opposition to the defendant's Rule 33 motion, due on March 16, 2022.

The Government requests permission: (1) to file a legal memorandum of no more than 35 pages, (2) to file four exhibits that may exceed 15 pages, among other exhibits, and (3) to send certain electronic exhibits directly to the Court (copying defense counsel). As the Court is aware, the defendant filed a 39-page memorandum with numerous exhibits, which the Court authorized post-filing. (Doc. No. 916). The Government requests a page limit extension to respond adequately to the motion. The electronic exhibits the Government expects to attach are the codefendant post-arrest recordings referenced in the motion. The potentially oversized exhibits are transcripts of those recordings. The defense consents.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney
